adult news

Mystery Book Club

Mystery Book Club will be meeting at 1:30 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. on Tuesday, February 7. The title this month will be Flowers For His Funeral by Ann Granger. This book club is always looking for new members!

Artist William Gallagher will be exhibiting his creative artworks during the month of February

Used Ink Jet Cartridges

The library is always collecting ink jet cartridges. Please drop off your old cartridges in the blue basket at the front of the library.

Rebecca Rowley will exhibit her photos in the library display case during the month of February.

children's department news

Please Note: All children's events require registration. Please call 949-3630, ext. 3 to register, and for program details. No walk-ins please.

Preschool Storyhours

Preschool Storyhours are held on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday mornings for pre-registered children. All sessions are currently in progress.

Reminder: There will be no Storyhours during vacation week, February 20-24.

Children's Bubble Display

Martin Silverman will share his awesome mini horse collection with library visitors. The display will be in the Children's Bubble during the month of February.

Create-a-Card

Join Mrs. Deborah Sutherland as she teaches children ages 6-10 how to create their own cards using rubber stamps. Each child will take home two cards they design. The program will take place Wednesday, February 1 at 4:00 pm. Registration is required and is taking place now.

Apple Blossom Garden Club

The Apple Blossom Garden Club invites children ages 5 to 10 to register for a special program at the Library. The children will create a design on a musical note using dried flowers, seeds, and beans. The completed arrangements will be on display at the Standard Flower Show at the RI Convention Center from February 23-26 and each piece will be judged. The program will be held on Wednesday, February 8 at 4:00 pm. Registration is required and is taking place now. Children may pick up their arrangements at the library after the show.

Come see the latest creative work by the Home School art students

Come make a beary special friend!

Does your child love sewing? Or would your child love to try sewing for the very first time? We will be making adorable, yet simple teddy bears at the library on February 22 at 2 pm. This creative sewing activity is for children in grades 3-5. Registration is required and will begin February 1.

Crazy Chemistry

Find out what cool things can happen when you put seemingly ordinary materials together. Slime, disappearing colors and skewered balloons abound in this exciting chemistry program! Children ages 6-12 may register for either a 2:00 pm session or a 3:15 pm session to be held on Tuesday, February 21. Yolie Rome from KidScience will be presenting the program. Registration begins February 1.

Join Teens Across Rhode Island in Voting

Let your voice be heard! The Library has copies of the official Rhode Island Teen Book Award ballot for young adults to select the 2006 winner. There are more than 20 titles to choose from. If you have read three or more titles on the list, you can vote on which you think was the best. For a list, please visit http://www.yourlibrary.ws/ya_webpage/ritba/ritba06/ritba06.htm. Those turning in ballots at the Library will be entered into a random drawing for a $10 gift card to an area restaurant. Ballots need to be turned in before February vacation.

Teen Movie Chat

This month, the Teen Movie Chat group will be Vertigo, the classic by Alfred Hitchcock. Join the group for fun treats and a sharing of ideas on Saturday, February 18 at 2:00 pm. Register at the Reference Desk starting February 1.

Fear Factor

Everyone loves this possible reality-tv show. Well, the library is going to be doing a version of its own on Wednesday, February 22 at 3:00 PM. See if you are brave enough to do some of these stunts. When registering, please mention any food allergies you might have. Registration starts now!

Teen Book Chat

The Teen Book Chat group will be discussion Piratica! by Tanith Lee, on Monday, February 27 at 4:00 pm. This program is free and open to those between the ages of 11 and 17. Register today!

A Make It/Bake It Valentine Treat Party

Stop by the Library at 4:00 PM on Tuesday, February 14 and make a special treat to celebrate the holiday. This is a perfect party to attend if you have a sweet tooth.

Teen Advisory Library Council

The TALC committee will be meeting on Saturday, February 4 at 2:00 pm. The council is made of area teens interested in helping the library better serve them. They share ideas on what books, DVD, and other materials the library should purchase as well as helping to plan programs the library offers for their age group. New members are always welcome. Teens looking to complete their community service requirements will find that this is a great way to do so! We will be starting to plan this year's summer reading program!

And the Winner Is....

Academy Awards Contest

How much do you think you know about the nominees for the Oscars? Who do you think should be the winner for best film? Here is your chance to predict who will win. The Library will have ballots available in the Young Adult area for teens to vote for best actor, best actress, and other categories. Ballots need to be turned in at the Reference desk by Tuesday February 29. The person whose predictions are the closest will win a prize. We will also post the winner of each category based on your votes.

Apples to Apples

Remember the old match game you played as a kid? You probably have gotten older, but you can play something similar now. Teens can stop into the Homework Center and play Apples to Apples, the fun word matching game at 4:00 pm on Monday, February 13. Teens can register for this program today!

Get Risky at the Library

Who wouldn't like to take over the world? Thanks to the popular party game, Risk, you can! And all the fun is in actually taking over. Try out Castle Risk, Lord of the Rings Risk, or even Classic Risk during this free program. The session will take place on Tuesday, February 21 from 3:00-5:00 pm.

Classics Club

The Classics Club will be meeting on Thursday, February 23 at 3:00 pm to discuss The Dark Frigate by Charles Boardman Hawes. The program, which is for those ages 9 and up, can be registered for after February 1. Feel free to bring an adult reader with you to join in on the discussion!

Be a Program Buddy

The Children's Room is looking for a few good teens to help with some programs for children ages 6 – 10 years old. They are as follows:

- Create-a-Card – Wednesday, February 1 at 4:00 PM
- Crazy Chemistry – Tuesday, February 21 at 2:00 PM and 3:15 PM
- Make a Beary Special Friend Wednesday, February 22 at 2:00 PM

Helpers would be encouraged to come a half hour before each program starts to help with setting up the program. This would be a great way to fill those needed community service hours for school or church! Contact Aaron if you would like to help at gvlyas@aol.com or 949-3630 x103.
