Please Note: Registration is required for all programs, so call 949-3630 x 3 to register, or do so in person at the Children's Desk. Please, no drop-ins or voice mail registrations for any of our programs. Thank you.

After School Program

Wednesday, June 11 at 4 pm children ages 6-10 can get creative and have a lot of fun making a tie-dye shirt. Make a fabulous shirt that you can wear all summer long. Please bring a plain, white shirt and we will provide the rest. Registration starts June 1.

Kickoff Program

Storyteller Christopher "Kavi" Carbone will visit the Greenville Library on Wednesday, July 2 at 10:30 am to kick off our Summer Reading Program. This show is fun for kids ages 4-10 and lasts forty-five minutes. Registration begins June 16.

Children's Bubble

Sydney Orsillo, age 8, will be displaying her fabulous rock and crystal collection in our Children's Room bubble display this month. Sydney shares her love for collecting rocks with her grandfather who got her started. They often spend special time together searching for extraordinary rocks and crystals.

No Fleas on Me!!

Does your child need practice in reading skills? Here's an opportunity to practice this summer with a therapy dog who LOVES to listen to stories. Children ages 6-10 who would benefit from this experience can sign up for one 20 minute session per week and spend that time reading to a willing, friendly, four-legged partner. Maxwell, our great story-listener, is a golden retriever who is certified (along with his guardian Diane Calo) as a pet assisted therapy dog. Max will be at the Library on Thursday evenings from 6:30-7:30 pm, beginning July 10. Additional sessions will be held on July 17, 24, 31, and August 7. Registration begins June 30.

Students @ The Learning place Pre-school present Pauline Leaver a check from their coin-collecting fundraiser.

Summer Reading Program 2008

Fast bug, slow bug, red bug, blue bug. Big bug, little bug, good bug, bad bug. Catch the Reading Bug! at the Greenville Library this summer where children ages 3 1/2- 10 years of age can explore the amazing world of bugs. The fun includes storytellers, magicians, music, crafts, bedtime storytimes, book buddies, weekly drawing prizes, incentive coupons, and more. Registration begins June 30 for the program which will take place from June 30-August 15. A complete brochure detailing all of the programs during the summer will be available by the middle of June. Descriptions of some of our opening programs follow.

Decorate a Summer Backpack

Summer is here and it's time for fun! Wednesday, July 9 at 10:30 am, come and decorate a drawstring backpack, which is perfect for carrying your beach towel and water bottle. Are you crazy about baseball, insects, flowers, cartoon characters or something else? Get creative and decorate your bag to reflect your individuality. Registration starts June 30 for this program for children ages 6-10 years old.

Book Buddies

Several teens are volunteering to team up with young readers in the Summer Reading Program on Tuesday mornings from 10:30-11:30 am, and Tuesday afternoons from 2:00-3:00 pm. Children ages 3 1/2-8 may sign up to read with a teen weekly to earn reading credit towards incentives, and for fun, of course! Buddy sessions begin on July 8, and continue on Tuesdays through August 12. Registration begins on June 30 for one or more of the Tuesday sessions.

Bedtime Storytimes

Storytimes for children ages 3 1/2-5 1/2 years will be held on Monday evenings, from 6:30-7:15 pm, beginning Monday, July 7. Registration is required and begins on Monday, June 30. Registration for the following storytimes will be taken the week before each session. Please inquire at the Children's Desk. (Future storytime dates are: July 14, July 21, July 28, and August 4. Children may wear their pajamas and bring their favorite stuffed animal.

Summer Reading Program

Metamorphosis @ Your Library 2008 Teen

Summer Reading Program

If you're between the ages of 11 and 17, the library is offering you a great way to celebrate the summer. It is our teen summer reading program, which will run from June 30 to August 16. You can win fabulous prizes for reading as well as take part in activities offered throughout the summer. Stop in to pick up an informational booklet detailing all events that will take place in the middle of the month. Registration for most programs start on June 30. Participants who reach the goal of reading 7 books over the summer receive a fun prize pack and their names will be entered into a drawing for the grand prize, an MP3 player. The teen summer reading program is sponsored by the RI Office of Library and Information Services, the Institute of Museum and Library Services, the Friends of the Greenville Public Library, McDonald's Restaurants of RI, and a number of area businesses and organizations.

Yak & Snack Book Chat

To help you with reaching your target for the teen summer reading program, the library will be hosting a series of book discussion groups with a session taking place each week. The books will tie in with the Metamorphosis @ Your Library theme. Sessions will include

Wednesday, July 2 @ 2:00 pm – The Boxes by William Sleater (all ages)

Thursday, July 10 @ 2:00 pm – Epic by Conor Kostick (all ages)

Insectigami

One of the first things to come to mind when you hear the word "metamorphosis" is probably bugs. Well, come to the library on Monday, June 30 and kick off our summer reading program fun by creating and building a series of paper bugs in the style of the traditional Japanese art of paper-folding, origami. The program, which is for those between the ages of 11 and 18, will start at 2:00 pm.

Book Buddies

The library would like to invite anyone who has finished Grade 5 or higher to become a Book Buddy this summer. If you enjoy working with children, we could use your help! Volunteers will read to preschoolers or listen to beginner readers on Tuesday mornings at 10:30 am or afternoons at 2:00 pm July 8 – August 12. Interested young adults should stop in at the Reference Desk or the Children's Room and fill out an application by July 1. Participants must attend on informational meeting on Tuesday July 1 at 10:30 am or 2:00 pm for training. If you would like more information, please call Aaron at 949-3630 x103.

Wii! It's So Much Fun!

It's good exercise, and it really is a great way to compete. On Tuesdays, June 3 and 10, the Library will be offering teens a chance to play in a tournament based on a Nintendo Wii game from 2:00 – 6:00 pm. You just bring yourself and enjoy the fun. The program is for middle- and high-school-aged young adults.

Egyptian Scarab Seals

Ancient Egyptian pharaohs used to keep scarab seals that they could use to sign documents. Come to the library at 11:00 am on Thursday, July 3 and learn a bit about hieroglyphs, cartouches, and how to make your own scarab-shaped seal so you can write letters to your friends while keeping your identity a secret. Those between the ages of 11 and 18 are welcome to register.

MySpace Safety Workshop

On Monday, July 7, at 11:00 am the library will be hosting an informational meeting for young adults and their parents to discuss ways that MySpace can be used safely. This one-hour workshop will discuss the history of the site as well as what dangers can be avoided by those who use the site.

Playlist Contest

What songs do you keep on your iPod or MP3 player? Do you think you have the best list? We will have fun activities that will allow you to show how good of a DJ you are and we will decide who has the best playlist. Join the fun on Wednesday, July 9 at 2:00 pm.

Summer Pen Pal Program

The library is participating in a statewide pen pal program. Participants will be paired up with a person of a similar age and interests from another town. Complete an Introductory Letter form, which is available at the Reference Desk, and turn it in to Aaron by Saturday, July 5.

Bugs Scavenger Hunt

Seek and ye shall find. The library is hoping to have your help. We need to find out all we can about bugs, and it needs to be done quickly. Join us on Saturday, June 5 at 11:00 am and follow the clues to help us hunt down those pesky critters. The first one to the end gets a special buggy prize.
