Dear Librarian

I am writing to you to let you know that I think the librarians at Greenville Library rock. Greenville Library is one of my favorite places. I have been there many times.

When I was little my mom took me to story time, where I had fun listening to stories and making crafts at the end. I also made new friends at the library and we would visit the Deerfield playground after story time.

When I got older, you helped me find books I was interested in and you also showed me where to put back the books when I was finished reading them. I love how you taught me how to put things on a desktop, which helps me a lot now.

For all these reasons I listed above, you are my favorite librarian!!!

Dear Librarian,

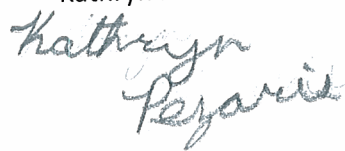

I love books and I bet you do too. Since you are a librarian, in honor of reading week, I will be writing this letter to you. I have always found librarians like yourself very nice. You are very friendly and you give us a helping hand when we are confused.

The ways you help us are bringing us to the right genre, or maybe even going online to find the book we are looking for and put it on hold for us. You help us in maybe the simplest ways. Maybe to read or even to use the computer. You are helping us in great ways.

You are inspiring to me. One of the things I want to be when I grow up is to be a librarian just like you. You help kids every day and I am impressed by what you do. You are everything I mentioned, from a helping hand to inspirational. You are awesome at what you do so keep up the good work.

Sincerely,

Kathryn Pezaris

I appreciate all of the hard work and time that you use to make kids happy. I visit the Greenville Public Library alot and I really enjoy going there. I love to read, and the library is the perfect place to go for me to find new, interesting books.

Librarians like you are really good people. You are a good person because you help children with their learning. You help kids become better readers by helping them with taking out books. You also assist children in finding out their reading level. I also enjoy taking part in the summer reading program which encourages children to read more.

I also believe that I should thank you for hosting all of the fun activities that I can participate in. One of my favorite activities is the one where you can read to a service dog. I enjoy the arts & crafts projects too. Another activity that interests me is the story time for all ages.

I also would like to thank you for always keeping the library environment quiet. Keeping the library a quiet place is a very important thing. The library being at a low volume will help kids and adults in the building concentrate. A lot of people find it very comforting to be in a quiet place. A hushed volume will relax people who are trying to read. They will be able to focus on reading.

I am very thankful to have you as a librarian because you can help me with my learning, make sure the library is quiet, and have fun activities for me and other children to attend. Librarians have a huge job. They help kids and adults enjoy a good book. I appreciate the work that you do to make tons of people happy.
