

Executive Committee on May 29th, following the Annual Meeting of May 29, '56. the Association.

The Secretary's minutes of the meeting of Feb. 13th were read and approved.

Mrs Charles A. Scott, Jr. was re-appointed as Librarian, and Mr. Ernest Stockwell as jointor for the coming year.

Mrs Jones' resignation as Chairman of the Book Committee was accepted with regret, and it was voted that her resignation be entered on the records with special thanks for all that she had accomplished.

Mr. Moon, as her successor, was elected chairman together with Mrs Jones, Mrs Calderara, Mrs Scott, and Miss Stillwell as members of the Book Committee for the coming year.

Mr. Charles A. Scott, Jr. was elected chairman of the Property Committee, which it was voted should consist of Mr. Winsor, Mr. McCaffrey and Miss Stillwell, the latter also in the capacity of hostess for the Library with Mrs Scott ex-officio in the capacity as Librarian.

Considerable discussion followed as to the eligibility of non-residents to use the Library.
It was voted that all non-resident members of The Cranford Club should be eligible to take books from the Library, and that the granting of this privilege to nearby non-residents, who may apply, should be left to the discretion of the Librarian.

The meeting was then adjourned

Respectfully submitted

Margaret B. Stillwell
Secretary
