

or serving of tea, coffee, and cakes at the official Opening. Mr. Scott offered to secure the loan of electric coffee-makers. The loan of various silver pieces for use on the serving table was offered by Mr. Fernald, Mr. Hall, and Miss Stillwell; at which time the lace tablecloth given by Mrs. Moore would be used for the first time.

Mrs. Scott reported that the Applebloom Garden Club had offered to provide some floral decorations for the occasion. Miss Stillwell was asked to secure as sponsors the two earliest members of the Library Association; the wives of the local clergy, of the School Superintendent, and of the school principals; together with the wives of Board members who are not members of the Board in their own right; and also the Presidents of various organizations which had contributed to the Library's equipment fund; Mrs. Levy; Miss Comstock; and Miss May Lamb.

It was suggested that cider be served in the early afternoon, so that guests who came prior to the Tea at four would nevertheless have some refreshment.

Respectfully submitted.

Executive Committee,
Nov. 28, 1956

At the Executive Committee held at the new Library on November 28th a quorum was present and Mrs. Moore in the chair.

After the Secretary's report was read and approved, the Treasurer reported that the drive for furnishing the Library went over the top, and that there was sufficient money in hand to pay all the remaining bills for the Library's construction and equipment - and to leave the $4,500.00, received from the sale of the old building, intact as an emergency fund.

The President spoke at some length on the problems of maintenance and it was agreed
