

Executive Committee
Feb. 4, 1953

At the meeting of the Executive Committee held on February 4th, the following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Moore, Dr. Tyng, Mr. Fernald, Mr. Jones, Mrs. Lockwood and Miss Stillwell.

The Secretary's report and a statement sent in by the Treasurer were read & accepted.

Mr. Fernald, as chairman of the maintenance committee, reported on the fixing of a leak and said that an estimate of $195.00 had been secured for a coat of silicon to be applied on the outside of the Library building. The estimate was laid on the table, until others could be procured.

Miss Stillwell, as chairman of the hospitality committee, spoke of the lovely "Candlelight and Carols" service held in the Lower Study at twilight on December 21st. She spoke of the fact that the group which had been meeting at the Library to discuss Great Books wished to continue during the coming months and that a second group wished to meet on the alternating Mondays for the discussion of the New Testament under the leadership of Dr. Tyng. She also reported that the Winsor P.T.A. had used the
