Executive Committee,
Sept. 9, 1958

The Executive Committee met on September 9th with the President in the chair and Mr. Fernald, Mr. and Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Moore, Dr. Tynag and Miss Stillwell present.

After the reading of the Secretary's reports of the May 20th meetings, discussion turned to the Festival of Local Arts and Crafts to be held under Library auspices on Sept. 13 and 14. Mrs. Moore and Miss Stillwell supplemented one another in describing the paintings of thirty or more of Mr. John G. Gallagher's pupils, which would be on view; and of the many professional-looking entries to be displayed under ceramics, decorative design, wood carving, leather work, train models, tray and furniture decoration, sculpture, hooked rugs and other crafts - all of the entries being the handiwork or creation of the residents
