

June 10, 1966 in the past twelve years. I cannot list these people (Continued) individually, as I am sure that I should omit someone whose part I should not ignore. I will refer only to Estler Jones and Everett Fernald, who first approached me back in 1950 to lend my professional experience in modernizing the Greenville Library.

We shall continue, all of us, to work for a constantly improving library situation in our Town, under the conviction that good library service is essential in these exciting days.

My final remark is to pay tribute to my wife, Louise, who joined me back in 1950 to do the various tasks that continued to grow and grow. Her contribution to the Greenville Public Library and her role as a trustee member of the Rhode Island Library Association is another full story, which need not be related here. She has shared my responsibilities, and together, we shall continue to work for the Library, under a new president.

Ray H. Moore (Elinor Wright)

July 22, 1966 A meeting of the Executive Board of the Greenville Public Library was held July 22, 1966, at 8:15 with the following persons present: Mr. Gallagher, Miss Stillwell, Mrs. Lockwood, Mr. & Mrs. Winsor, Mrs. Cronheimer, Mr. Straight, Mr. & Mrs. Moore, Mr. Fernald and Mrs. Wright.

The Secretary's report of the Annual Meeting held June 10, 1966, was accepted as read, as was the report of the Treasurer.

A letter of encumbrance was read to be forwarded to the Smithfield Library Council for State aid for libraries.

Mrs. Lockwood gave the report on the Furnishings Committee, reporting on the purchase of wastepaper baskets, filing cabinets, vacuum cleaner, clocks, etc., and then asked that her committee be dissolved, as their work was done. A motion was made and passed, to this effect.

Miss Stillwell read the report of the Building Committee and this, also, was accepted as read and placed on file.

A discussion concerning the state owned land to the west of the Library then followed. Miss Stillwell thought Monroe Allen might be able to look into the
